Laraine Bennett has a master's degree in Philosophy and is the Editor and Communications Manager of the National Council of Catholic Women (NCCW). With her husband, Art, she co-authored three books on temperament ("The Temperament God Gave You", "The Temperament God Gave Your Spouse", and "The Temperament God Gave Your Kids") as well as a book about emotions ("The Emotions God Gave You"). She also wrote a book of reflections for caregivers, "A Year of Grace: 365 Reflections for Caregivers".

Dr Andrew Mullins received his doctorate from the University of Notre Dame Australia where he now holds an appointment as an Adjunct Associate Professor. Currently he is director of Drummond Study Centre, in Melbourne. He has extensive experience in the field of education with children and young people: he is past Headmaster of Redfield and Wollemi Colleges in Sydney, schools of the Parents for Education (PARED) Foundation. He also collaborates with other academic entities, such as the Australian Defence Forces Academy, in Canberra; John Paul II Institute for the Family, in Melbourne; and the Universidad Internacional de Cataluña, based in Barcelona. He has given numerous lectures and seminars in Australia, New Zealand, Italy, Nigeria and The Philippines. He also has collaborated with newspapers and specialized magazines with articles on education in values, character, and collaboration between schools and colleges. Dr. Andrew Mullins is the author of "Parenting for Character: Equipping Your Child for Life", a manual for teaching values to children, students and even adults.

Shaunti Feldhahn is a ground-breaking social researcher, best-selling author, and popular speaker – but a wife and mom first. After receiving a graduate degree from Harvard, and working on Capitol Hill and Wall Street, Shaunti now uses her analytical skills to investigate the most important surprises about the most important people in our lives. She focuses on digging out the little changes that will make the biggest difference in our lives, relationships, families, and workplace relationships.
